Part 2

Section 3: Translation

Translate the following passage taken from Chapter 11 into idiomatic English.;

Aeneas tandem collem descendit; urbem intrat et accedit ad magnum templum.

In templi muris multae picturae sunt; Aeneas picturas spectat; attonitus est; nam picturae bellum Troianum describunt. amicum vocat et 'ecce, amice' inquit, 'in hac pictura Priamum videre potes et Achillem.'

Aeneas climbs the hill at last; he enters the city and approaches to the great temple.

On the walls of the temple there are many pictures; Aeneas looks at the pictures. He is astonished; for the pictures portray the Trojan war. He calls his friend and says "look, friend", 'in this picture you can see Priam and Achilles'.
